

PERSUADING MOM AND DAD

Mom and Dad do not make ME your Thanksgiving dinner. You won't regret it because of several reasons. First of all, my cavity is too small for stuffing. Second of all, I have a disease. Next, my wishbone is broken and aching like crazy, and you might choke on the pieces. Also, there is a better tasting turkey out there! LAST, but not least, I'm just spoiled rotten. For all of these reasons I hope that you make another choice . . . that is NOT ME!
