

Grading Rubric

Criteria	5	4	3	2	1
Eye Contact	Engaged the audience with their eyes for the entire presentation	Kept the audience engaged with eyes for a majority of the presentation	Kept some eye contact but looked toward the floor for a majority of the presentation	Barely looked up from the floor or had back to the audience for a substantial part of the presentation	Had no eye contact with the audience
Voice	Spoke clearly and loudly at all times	Spoke clearly and loudly for most of the piece	Used a clear voice but not enough volume	Used a voice that was both hard to hear and unclear for most of the piece	Voice lacked volume and clarity for entirety of the piece.
Facial Expressions	Expressed appropriate emotions with the face that engaged the audience at all times	Used a good amount of expression with the face for most of the piece	Added some facial expression at appropriate times	Used limited facial expression	Used no facial expression
Cooperation	Showed excellent work with a group or partner and used time wisely to create a group performance that everyone was a part of	Worked well with a group or partner to create a performance that everyone was a part of	Worked well with others but could have put more individual effort into the presentation	Worked okay with others but did not use time wisely or stay on task	Did not work well with others or did not participate in the presentation